

Bill in a race car

Bill Krutilla races a 1979 Crosslé 35F in the Emerald Cup, a vintage Formula Ford championship in the Pacific Northwest, sanctioned by SOVREN.

Title contender

In the Emerald Cup Club Ford championship fight through the final weekend of his rookie season.

Track record

Club Ford record at Qlisépé Raceway Park: 1:32.875, June 7, 2026.

Five race weekends

Pacific Raceways, Portland International Raceway, and Qlisépé Raceway Park.

The right crowd

The Pacific Northwest Historics is the largest vintage road race in the region, with more than 200 cars in 2026, and the Emerald Cup put 28 of them on the grid. The paddock is open to spectators: owners, collectors, and business owners walk right up to the car and talk to the driver.

Every race is filmed onboard and posted online, with partners mentioned all season.

Next up: COTA, November 5–8, 2026

SVRA Racing America at Circuit of the Americas, Austin, Texas. Sign on for any 2027 package now and you're part of COTA too.

Put your business behind the car

Every partner, at every level, is welcome in the paddock at every race. All packages are for the 2027 season, and prices are starting points: every package can be built up around your business.

The paddock backdrop, behind the car at every race.

Where your logo goes

Helmet	Founding Primary
Paddock backdrop	Primary, Associates, Supporters, Friends
Tent banner	Race Weekend Partner
Crew shirts	Primary and Associates
Site, media kit, videos	Every partner, by level

SOVREN keeps cars in period-correct livery, so modern logos go on the helmet, in the paddock, on the crew, and online.

Package	Price	What you get
Founding Primary Partner	from $5,000 / season	Helmet design, center of the backdrop, crew shirts. Home page, media kit, and video logo; named in posts; car display; personal appearance. One available.
Associate Partner	from $1,000 / season	Backdrop side spot and shirt sleeve. Home page, media kit, and video logo; personal appearance. Two available.
Race Weekend Partner	from $500 / weekend	Banner under our tent for your weekend; you and up to four guests hosted; logo on the race schedule.
